

Third Edition of the Dialogues Author-Publisher
Under the Patronage of MEP Marielle Gallo
19th of November 2013, European Parliament, Strasbourg

Have you read or are about to read Truismes, Tom est mort, or Il faut beaucoup aimer les hommes? Are you familiar with Weiser Dawidek, Byłem samotny i. Szczęśliwy, Ostatnia wieczerza or Opowieści chłodnego morza? Or maybe you are simply curious and passionate about literature?

If so, with pleasure, we invite you to attend our author-publisher dialogues. Come and meet Marie Darrieussecq, a French writer and selected for the Prix Goncourt, and Pawel Huelle, a Polish writer, professor, journalist and director, and their respective publishers, Paul Otchakovsky-Laurens (Publishing House POL) and Jerzy Illg (Publishing House Znak).

Following the success of our previous editions, these authors and publishers will show you how their work is inextricably linked and how important the author-publisher relationship really is.

The dialogues will take place in Strasbourg on the 19th of November. A dinner will be held at the European Parliament, starting at 20.30. More information on this event will be sent shortly – for now, please save the date in your diaries and please let us know if you are interested in attending this event.

Please note that interpretation will be provided in Polish, French and English.
